Author: Karen Kelly Boyce
Publisher: KFR Communications, LLC
Release date: June 15, 2011
ISBN: 978-0-9828959-1-7
Synopsis: Ten-year-old Angie delivers the town tabloid with natural wisdom and confidence. The characters she meets along her way have varied adult troubles and lives. Born with Down syndrome and an ability to see angels, Angies's simple knowledge and common sense transform those who line her route. Based on the third joyful mystery of the Rosary - the birth of Christ - Angie's story emphasizes that God often speaks to us through others. He delights in using the weakest to reach the strongest. Christ humbled himself to come as a babe, so his wisdom comes to us through those considered the least by society.

Pursued by Love
SOA Awarded: 3/26/12
Author: Jeanne Bush
Publisher: Trafford
Publication Date: not provided
ISBN: not provided
Synopsis: This is a love story, but it's radically different because the love of God breaks into the novel like a whirlwind. What is the price of such love? Are the characters, especially one young woman, able to accept the magnificent challenge? The plot is woven around this theme of love--human and divine with the golden thread of the gospel of St. John binding it together. It's a story of mystery and suspense in the lives of characters who are very much like you and I.

Author: Mike Hays
Publisher: MuseItUp
Publication Date: March 2012
ISBN: 978-1-77127-005-2
Synopsis: In post-Civil War Missouri, tension builds to a boiling point between 11-year old Boy Smyth and his mild mannered, devout father over the father's embarrassing lack of support for Boy's Border War heroes, the outlaw Cole Younger and the notorious Border War phantom William "The Butcher" Bryant. Their farm is visited by Cole Younger and his injured brother, Jim, of the infamous James-Younger gang, on the run after a train robbery. Surprisingly, Boy discovers the Youngers are childhood friends of his parents. Cole has come to their farm for the aid of Boy's mother to nurse Jim's gunshot wound. The Youngers rest and heal as Boy learns about his family's past and understands why Pa is like he is. After the Youngers leave, a revenge-seeking band of ruffians arrive at the farm. Everything the family has is threatened, forcing Pa to unleash a hidden identity to save his family.

Sisters of the Last Straw: The Case of the Haunted Chapel
SOA Awarded: 6/25/12
Author: Karen Kelly Boyce
Publisher: KFR Communications, LLC
Publication Date: 2012
ISBN: 978-0982895924

Synopsis: This is the first of a series of children's books about a group of misfit nuns. These nuns and their mad-cap adventures teach the importance of tolerance and forgiveness. As the nuns solve little mysteries they focus on the virtues of the Gospel and the frailties of human nature. In this the first book the nuns hear 'voices' in the chapel and fear that the chapel is haunted. After some investigation the nuns find a hidden apartment where a homeless family lives. They offer the family both the living quarters and a job helping the nuns. The humorous escapades of the characters teach the basics of Christian values, growth, and love.

But after a priceless ruby ("Eden's Fire") is stolen, Xan must confront a mysterious magician, a den of robbers, and Brother Andrew's hard-headed mother before he can discover the true thief. Even more troubling, Xan must choose between a future at the abbey or a new life with his uncle in far-away Lincoln.

Finding Grace
SOA Awarded: 11/29/12
Author: Laura Pearl
Publisher: Bezalel Books
Release Date: August 2012
Synopsis: At the age of thirteen, Grace Kelly (who has been saddled with the name of a world-renowned beauty, but is far from one herself) is inspired by an offhand comment from her father to become a saint. But coming of age and falling deeply in love for the first time in the early 1970's--in the wake of the 60's "sexual revolution" and the historic Roe v. Wade decision--presents true challenges for young people who are trying to live chastely. Grace realizes that without the help of God, the Blessed Mother, and all the saints in Heaven, navigating the thorny path to sainthood would be an almost insurmountable task.

Managing Your Time, Energy, and Talent in Ministry
SOA Awarded: 3/26/12
Author: John P. Flanagan
Publisher: Alba House ( Society of St.Paul ) Staten Island, NY
Release date: 2006
ISBN: 0-8189-1233-2; 978-0-8189-1233-7
Synopsis: This book is a “must read” for clergy and those involved in ministry of all religious denominations as well volunteers in charitable organizations. It offers business and spiritual based guidelines for effective use of their time, energy and talents in their respective areas of ministry.

Time is brief and precious while our obligations are many; the needs we serve are often serious and urgent. It is critically important for those in ministry to know how to juggle the disparate challenges in their daily lives so they don’t burn out but rather are enriched by the services they perform.

The author calls upon his many years of experience in both the professional management and ministry arena to provide invaluable advice in these pages. He reveals both his successes and failures and the wisdom acquired that will provide enlightenment and encouragement to those who seek to better serve God, Church and community.

Fools, Liars, Cheater and Other Bible Heroes
SOA Awarded: 9/26/12
Author: Barbara Hosbach
Publisher: Franciscan Media
Publication Date: 7/1/12
ISBN: 97801061636-429-8
Synopsis: Fools, Liars, Cheaters & Other Bible Heroes explores the diverse stories of 28 biblical figures—men and women with a wide range of strengths and weaknesses. From Hosea, who made himself a fool for God to the Samaritan woman who was the town tramp, God invited these individuals to respond to his plan for them just as he invites each of us today. Questions for reflection and discussion at the end of each chapter help readers identify with the stories, reflect on the way God is calling them in the here and now, and craft their own unique response.

The Bible Tells Me So: A Year of Catechizing Directly From Scripture
SOA Awarded: 9/26/12
Author: Christian LeBlanc
Publisher: Create Space
Publication Date: May 2012
Synopsis: 30 Lessons. 2 Testaments. 1 Mass. If you are a middle-school catechist or homeschooler looking for tried-and-tested ways to use the Bible to teach the Catholic faith to a roomful of tired kids, this is the book for you. The Bible Tells Me So recounts one year of Bible-based Catholic teaching for 6th-graders, featuring both Bible-sourced Catechesis, and the give-and-take between teacher and students. It’s intended to provide a firm Scriptural foundation for today’s Catholic children, and give them an invaluable familiarity with the Bible and their faith at the same time. The Bible Tells Me So is divided into three Units: 1 and 2 treat the Bible chronologically from Genesis to Revelations, emphasizing the Catholic understanding of Scripture. Unit 3 then examines the Mass in lessons which draw from the knowledge gained in the preceding units, using the Bible and a Missalette.

Swept Up By the Spirit
SOA Awarded: 11/29/12
Author: Gary Garner
Publisher: Self published
Publication Date: 7/2/2012
ISBN: 978-0-9856705-2-8
Synopsis: The author, a designer/building contractor of luxury homes becomes overwhelmed by the mortgage/housing crisis of the 1970’s. Mired in darkness, shackled with debt, depressed and suicidal, with no faith and seemingly no place to turn for help, the Holy Spirit orchestrated an almost unbelievable awakening that launched him on a lifetime evangelical mission.

Jesus and the Holy Spirit supernaturally entered into his daily life and the lives of others and intercepted, redirected and empowered them. The book recounts actual events, described as they happened, of radical transition from worldly choices and near devastation to the Glory of God’s kingdom, the pursuit of His will, filled with discovery of the Holy Spirit’s presence and redemptive involvement in everyday life, often at the least expected times and places. Just like Acts of the Apostles, the Holy Spirit will show you how He turns Satan’s maze into the Lord’s life changing amazement

A Special Mother Is Born

Foreword by Mother Mary Agnes Donovan, SV Superior of the Sisters of Life, and afterward by Fr Frank Pavone, Founder of Priests for Life.

Cultivating God’s Garden through Lent
SOA Awarded: 11/29/12
Author: Margaret Rose Realy
Publisher: Patheos Publishing
Publication Date: 1/1/2013
ISBN: tbd
Synopsis: This book offers readers daily reflections through Lent on the vibrancy of God in nature and brings a unique view of connecting with the Creator through spiritual insights drawn from His creation (Veriditas). Readers will be those who love gardens and woods; care about nature, find solace in experiencing the Creator through these environments. The book is important and relevant because of its simplicity in a complex, fast paced world where the advent of new technologies entices us away from being still with God. These reflections allow readers to regain the balance Pope Benedict XVI urgently promotes in order that we may share the faith more fully in a world of new media. The seven sections represent each week: Ash Wednesday through Easter Sunday. Each section has a theme based on the following Sunday's gospel, a theme found running within the combined gospels of Cycles A, B or C.
