Synopsis: Rock and a Hard Place: A Lithuanian Love Story is the true story of a farm boy and a city girl, both born in prosperous Lithuania, in 1929. The country they love is slowly being taken over by Russia. When they are nine, both families flee to spend years as refugees. It's a story of heartbreak for the Baltic nations and the refugees caught between the Russian invasion and the German betrayal while communism nips at their heels. I had a wonderful couple of years interviewing this couple, listening to their stories, seeing their photographs and artifacts. They couldn't imagine anyone would want to hear their stories. Readers, you are about to be part of their amazing love story. From their happy childhoods, to their chaotic teen years as refugees, to their first look at the Statue of Liberty, their faith, courage and determination will swell your heart with pride and love. This is the story of millions of immigrants who brought that faith, courage and determination with them and created our mighty nation of the post World Wars.

Word Count: 35000

Synopsis: Anonymous sticky-notes, a scheming bully, and a ruined summer send almost-fourteen-year-old Wendy down a trail of secrets and self-discovery.

At the end of eighth grade, Wendy Robichaud doesn't care one bit about being popular like her good-looking classmates Tookie and the Sticks—until Brainiac bully John-Monster schemes against her, and someone leaves anonymous sticky-note messages all over school. Even her best friend, Jennifer, is hiding something and pulling away. But the Spring Program, abandoned puppies, and high school track team tryouts don't leave much time to play detective. When secrets and failed dreams kick off the summer, will Jennifer still be around to support her?

Using humor and offering hope, this story for ages 11 to 14 delicately addresses issues of bullying, eating disorders, imperfect families, and teen suicide.

Word Count: 126101

Synopsis: 1896, Philadelphia. In this sequel to "In Name Only" (2009 FQP), "A Subtle Grace" continues the story of the wealthy and unconventional O'Donovan Family as they approach the dawn of a new century. At 19, Kathleen (oldest daughter) is unmarried with no prospects. Fearing the lonely fate of an old maid, her impatience leads to an infatuation with the first man who shows interest. The suave, handsome son of the local police chief seems a perfect match. But will her impulsive manner prevent her from recognizing her true beloved? A disturbing turn of events brings a dark shadow that threatens the life-long happiness she desires. Dr. Luke Peterson (the family's new physician) also makes quite an impression on Kathleen. His affection for her leads him to startling revelations: about Kathleen, about his practice and, most importantly, about himself.

She's more concerned with the decades of junk that has accumulated and for which she is now responsible. She doesn't know what to do with any of it or even how to approach sorting through it all.

Her new neighbor, Andrew Lately, is happy to offer some words of wisdom and the help of his grandson, Charlie, to get her started. Charlie makes it clear right away that he is interested in more than helping Rebecca move boxes. She doesn't know if she can return those feelings. In fact, recent events have made her question her ability to feel much of anything.

Will Charlie's patience pay off or will it take a real ghost to help Rebecca understand the nature of love?

ISBN: 978-0819808301

Word Count: 40,000

Synopsis: Thirteen-year-old Gabe Carpenter is just like any other middle-school boy at St. Jude Academy...well, except for the fact that based on his scores on some seventh grade test, he is considered a "genius" and is placed in an enrichment class with other gifted students. But he sure doesn't seem like a genius-after all, he can't even open his own locker and his brain stops functioning when Becca, his sister's best friend, comes around. As if these problems aren't enough to deal with, he is convinced that one of his arms is longer than the other and his second best friend is mad at him. Even worse, his nervousness causes some pretty embarrassing bodily functions. And at home, his dad expects him to be some kind of basketball star athlete instead of a science nerd who predicts the weather. Join Gabe as he navigates the trying times of middle-school, wonders what it means to have brains, and learns what it truly means to be himself.

Author: Diana Gonzalez Tabbaa

Publisher: CreateSpace

Release Date: October 2013

ISBN: 13:978-1475101119

Word Count: 28,277

Synopsis: Rose spends much of her time dwelling on her troubles. She lives in anxiety and loneliness, as her mother has been harsh and distant since the death of her father when she was an infant. One golden summer, as she leaves her childhood years behind, her grandmother and a heaven-sent friend teach her to bring everything in her life to God in prayer, and to bring His Life into her own. She comes to know and trust God deeply, especially when she discovers a message of love carved by her father in a great tree that forms the crucifix of a Rosary Garden. A Mary's Garden that she plants reflects her own growth in a living faith that brings a garden of souls with her to God, including her mother. This timeless story of forgiveness and hope shows how suffering is transformed through union with Christ. Enriched with spiritual art, poetry, and quotes from Scripture, "The Tree of Healing" tells of the healing of one young girl and of all wounded humanity by the Sacrifice of Jesus on a new Tree of Life.

Author: Matthew W. Gaul

Publisher: Leonine Publishers, LLC

Release Date: October, 2013

ISBN: 978-0988772991

Word Count: 57,379

Synopsis: Long before modern communications, the Eastern Church taught and prayed with sacred pictures - "icons." This book is an exposition of that lived treasure, embodied today in St. Nicholas Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church in New York. The large, beautiful hardcover includes: glorious full-color photography and rich explanations of the Twelve Great Feasts, many favorite saints and angels; a comprehensive glossary of iconography; and much more! Gaul explains the initial reaction a modern American would have when confronted with the overwhelming beauty of Byzantine iconography: "When I first arrived I felt hesitant and even unworthy, for the presence of God was so obvious and arresting that I almost did not know how to handle it. It was an honor simply to be let in the door." Tales of Glory is a story of sacrifice and redemption, ever-new for the faithful today. Turn the pages and enter into another world.

Author: Margaret M. Dvorak

Publisher: Liguori Publications

Release Date: 2/26/2014

ISBN: 978-0-7648-2394-7

Word Count: 208

Synopsis: Beloved: A Collection of Timeless Catholic Prayers honors the rich prayer life of the Catholic Church and provides an opportunity to pray with Scripture. Many will remember with great fondness the chaplets and litanies included in it, and will find helpful the prayers for various intentions (for the sick, to know the will of God, etc.) These prayers also help petitioners remember that their voices are joined with those of the saints and holy people who have gone before them. Younger Catholics, perhaps discovering these prayers for the first time, might use them to deepen their prayer life.

Beloved is a book of traditional Catholic prayers and devotions with accompanying scriptures which help focus the reader while quieting their minds from outside distractions.

Author: Judy Landrieu Klein

Publisher: Self

Release Date: December 2013

ISBN: 978-1-939909-18-3

Word Count: 85000

Synopsis: "Miracle Man" is the true story of an authentically Catholic near death experience and death bed conversion. It follows Bernie Klein's journey to heaven and back after Bernie inexplicably survives "the widow maker" and comes back from "the dead" to share his dramatic encounter with Jesus. Bernie's "come to Jesus" brings him to radical conversion, answering the prayers of his wife, Judy-- a Catholic theologian who has prayed fervently for his conversion for many years. Bernie's personal experience with God also brings about Judy's own deeper conversion, as she learns to let go of fear and surrender completely to God. "Miracle Man" is a book that readers widely claim they "can't put down." Pregnant with teaching about the Catholic faith, "Miracle Man" has been called "a must read" by readers of all denominations.

Author: Michael Seagriff

Publisher: Createspace

Release Date: 5/24/2014

ISBN: 13-978-0692214657

Word Count: 21400

Synopsis: The sad but truthful reality is that in far too many of our Catholic parishes we have lost the sense of the sacred and an appreciation for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass that are both essential for fostering and maintaining a belief in the Real Presence. As Jesus hung from the cross more than 2000 years ago, He let us know He was thirsty – not a physical thirst - but an unquenchable spiritual thirst to be loved by those He created and for whose eternal benefit He died. If we really believed Jesus Christ was truly here with us, we would go visit Him. Nothing and no one would prevent us from doing so. We are the only ones who can quench His thirst. It is the author's hope that after reading this book you will make it your personal mission to do so.
